

NEW DIVISION FOR LONDON OFFICE

McGoff & Vickers Ltd are delighted to announce the appointment of Graham Rae to head a new Mechanical Services Department within the London Office

McGoff & Vickers have traditionally sub contracted many of the mechanical elements of project management and we are confident in our new move to bring this expertise in house and under our direct control removing a further link in your supply chain.

Our London office currently turns over in excess of £2M in mechanical services and we are looking to grow this area of the business.

For more information please contact the Regional Director for London & the South East, Colin Farley. or Head of the Mechanical Division, Graham Rae
